

Why it pays to join Fitchburg Federal

“Credit unions are still the best-kept secret in banking...” says AARP in its recent Bulletin. But it’s no secret that Fitchburg Federal Credit Union members are enjoying all the perks of banking with their locally owned and locally managed Credit Union. Better deals, quick answers, flexibility, lower fees or no fees, and better service – and that’s just for starters. ■ All it takes to join Fitchburg Federal is opening a $25 share savings account. Your family members can join, too! Stop by today.

Al DiMarzio wins Red Sox tickets!

Congratulations to Al DiMarzio, a Fitchburg Federal member for over 17 years, who won Red Sox tickets in a raffle to benefit Children’s Hospital

Boston, donated by EasCorp of Burlington.

Al says Fitchburg Federal is “the best ‘bank’ I have ever belonged to. I really feel like family, and the service is wonderful. I always recommend joining my Credit Union to anyone who will listen!”

Fitchburg Federal and its members raised over $2,200 in the “Credit Union Kids at Heart” fundraising efforts. EasCorp and participating credit unions have raised $3.3 million for Children’s Hospital Boston over the years.
